Letter from the Chair of the Board of Trustees

Dear Alumnae and Friends and Benefactors of AMSU,

“How do you spell ‘LOVE’?” Piglet asked Pooh.
“I don’t have to spell it,” said Pooh. “I just FEEL it.”

As I look back on this year and anticipate the year ahead, I FEEL that LOVE as I witness the overwhelming generosity of our donors, as outlined in this Annual Report. Whether you are an alum, a parent, or a friend and benefactor of AMSU, you have demonstrated your support and belief in our mission.

I FEEL that LOVE when I observe our students performing at a spring concert or play, or seeing our student “ambassadors” conducting tours at Open House, or listening to students at a donor breakfast speak about what AMSU means to them, or joined by our girls on a recruiting visit to my elementary school (OLR, see photo below). I marvel at their talent, their poise, and their unsuppressed enthusiasm.

This fall we are launching our Capital Campaign: “Ensure Their Future” which will culminate in our 160th anniversary in 2015. This Campaign is necessary to enrich, preserve, and continue the excellent education for our young women, now and in the years ahead.

It is our hope that our donors will validate this major undertaking. You have been kind in your generosity in the past, but now we ask you to be our “Pillars of Strength” as we plan for bright tomorrows.

With the generous support of the Ursuline community, we hope to surpass our $3 million goal. This is POSSIBLE because of the Love, Kindness, and Generosity of our consistent donors.

“It’s POSSIBLE”, a song my granddaughter knows by heart from our recent trip to Cinderella encourages me to “brim” with Optimism. Add to that, the words of a recent graduate and Salutatorian, Kejana Ayala, about AMSU: “You have provided me with an entire world of Possibilities.” These Possibilities can only blossom with this campaign.

Thank You to the Ursuline Community. Thank You to the leadership of Fr. John Vigilanti, Ms. Lisa Harrison, and Ms. Anna Parra, who work tirelessly to educate and prepare our young women for these “Possibilities”.

And finally, THANK YOU for Believing in AMSU!! To paraphrase St. Angela: You will be engraved in our hearts...” one by one”. AMSU’s future is brighter because of YOU. Or in the words of another recent graduate, Peace Aisogun, “May your Kindness live on”.

With Much Appreciation,

Message from the President

Dear Alumnae and Friends:

As one of the oldest, continuous institutions in the City of New York (160 years in 2015), the Academy of Mount St. Ursula is deeply grateful for the support it receives from the Ursulines, alums, benefactors, and friends. Such generosity, as noted in this Annual Report, requires, not only that we acknowledge that generosity, but that we also give an audited, independently verified account of how we disburse those funds. Growing up here in the Bronx as the oldest of six children, I understand the financial choices my parents had to make. They were not easy. Vacations were in the Bronx, mostly in a local playground or Orchard Beach.

Today, I can assure you that any financial decisions we make here at the school are meant to enhance the academic programs we offer our students. Nothing is more important. The administrative team, teachers, and staff are united in keeping the focus clear. Money is spent cautiously and wisely. It continues to be a struggle to balance the academic needs of the students with a just wage for our teachers and staff. I see no easing of this tension, for us and other parochial schools, in the near future.

The present Capital Campaign, initiated last month in light of our approaching 160th anniversary, is meant to give us a financial cushion and the ability to meet emerging academic challenges for our students and teachers. Thank you for your loyal support to a school that has maintained a wonderful Ursuline tradition. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Fr. John A. Vigilanti, Ed.D.
President

Letter from the Principal

Dear Alumnae, Benefactors, and Friends,

I am often asked what it is like to be the principal of an all-girls Catholic high school. My reply? Challenging. The challenges with which school administrators are presented come in a variety of shapes, sizes, and designations. We contend with enrollment challenges, academic, social, and emotional challenges, values-based challenges, and, of course, the mother of all challenges: the financial challenges.

To be a bit more explicit: Catholic elementary schools in the ADNY continue to close their doors, thus high school feeder-school options are steadily decreasing. Sustaining a lucrative enrollment becomes increasingly more difficult with each passing year. The diverse needs of learners in a more enlightened educational climate and an increasingly technological society require entirely different instructional methodologies in order to be deemed college ready and to be prepared to achieve success. Educating 21st Century learners presents innumerable complexities. Society’s values and priorities have changed; faith and values-based education is no longer as attractive as it used to be, for the reasons that it used to be. Assisting in the formation of character has become a rather delicate business. The socio-economic status of the demographic we serve, compounded by the nation’s current economic climate, compromises the ability of families to afford our very modest tuition. Subsidizing the cost of attendance for many of our students substantially restricts our allowances for resources, salaries, and operating expenses.

At a glance, it can seem overwhelming. There are times when it seems that the obstacles presented by such challenges have the potential to compromise our mission. However, we are aware that contending with these challenges is itself fulfillment of the mission – a mission that is furthered through the generosity of our constituents: Ursulines, alumnae, parents, students, community members, benefactors, and friends. Please be assured of our gratitude for all that you do in support of AMSU, and know that every financial decision we administrators make is ultimately in the best interest of the students we serve.

Whenever I remark upon how challenging it is to be the principal of an all-girls Catholic high school, I never hesitate to temper the word “challenging” with another, equally appropriate adjective: rewarding. Nothing is more rewarding than seeing the results of the good work we do, despite the many challenges we face in so doing.

St. Angela reminds us: “If you all stand united in heart, you will be strong in adversities.” Thank you for standing united in heart with AMSU and its mission; thank you for helping us to navigate the challenges with unbelievably rewarding outcomes.

Sincerely,

Lisa Harrison

Ursuline Community of Bedford Park
Reverend John Vigilanti
Mrs. Joan Winant (O’Meara) ’69

The vision of the “Ensure Their Future” campaign is to meet the needs of all students and families looking for an opportunity. The campaign goals are to preserve the Ursuline mission while we expand our academic footprint to provide services to an even larger academically diverse student body.

As in the words of St. Angela Merici...
“Do something, get moving, be confident, risk new things, stick with it, get on your knees, then be ready for BIG SURPRISES.”

"The decision to make a pledge to AMSU's Capital Campaign to "Ensure Their Future" was easy for me. "Serviam" and "Four Years to Last a Lifetime" are why I've chosen to do so. It is a wise and very rewarding investment in the education of today's women - one which will pay high dividends and reap life-long benefits for the "girls of Mount St. Ursula," their families, communities, society and for me as well."
- Carole Kakos ’61

The future doesn’t build itself. We build it... Together.

For more information on how you can help with the "Ensure Their Future" capital campaign, please contact Sr. Kathleen Finnerty, O.S.U. ’56, Assistant to the President for the Capital Campaign: 718-364-5353, ext. 230 or kfinnerty@amsu.org.
1855 Society

The 1855 Society is a group of dedicated alumnae who have included a long term planned gift to the Academy of Mount St. Ursula in their will. We would like to take this opportunity to thank the following alumnae for incorporating AMSU as part of their legacy.

Planned gifts allow an individual to support AMSU and at the same time meet one’s philanthropic goals. Charitable bequests are exempt from estate taxes. You may establish an endowment fund, scholarship or contribute to a campaign without actually making any payments at this time.

Please consider joining other AMSU alumnae by acknowledging the school in a special way and making a difference.

"More so than ever, young Bronx girls need a haven like AMSU to provide a solid Christian education and to open doors of opportunity. Including my Alma Mater in my will gives me assurance that the school’s mission will continue for generations."

Student Tuition Assistance

Alumnae and friends of AMSU have found that providing financial assistance to our students is a way to directly make an impact. In some instances a relationship is formed between the donor and student, making these funding opportunities very special for both parties.
